The Ghost of Northumberland Strait

By Lori Knutson

Chapter Eight – Responsive Journaling Questions:

1. “Why are you here? Aren’t you dead?” (page 73) In this situation, would you bring up to Katherine that she is dead, a ghost? Why or why not?

2. Katherine is afraid to leave her property and venture down to the beach along Northumberland Strait. Have you ever been really afraid to do something but then did it anyway? If not, why didn’t you? Was the risk too great?

3. How do you think you would feel visiting with someone you knew was a ghost? Would you feel comfortable after awhile or would it continue to feel very weird?
