The Ghost of Northumberland Strait
By Lori Knutson

Chapter Eleven – Responsive Journaling Questions:

1. “I’ve never seen her before. Lots of people have.” (page 87) Lots of people in the novel claim to have seen Katherine’s ghost. Do you think you’ve seen a ghost? If you did, how did you react? If you didn’t, how do you think you’d react if you did?

2. Derek seems nervous in this chapter to enter the house on Northumberland Strait. How do you act when you’re nervous? Do your palms sweat and your heart pound? Do you look nervous or do you look cool as a cucumber?

3. How does it make you feel to see an old house, barn or even vehicle in need of repair as Katherine’s house is? Do you feel sad like Charly does or do you want to plow it over and build something new? Why do you feel this way?
