The Ghost of Northumberland Strait

By Lori Knutson

Chapter Thirteen – Responsive Journaling Questions:

1. On page 101, Katherine says, “Truth is, everyone is responsible for their own choices.” Do you agree that this is always true? Are there times when we’re forced into choices? Or do we usually have control over what we choose to do? What do you think?

2. In this chapter, Charly talks about being grounded. Have you ever been grounded? Why or why not? Do you think grounding is an effective form of punishment? Does it work?

3. Do you think you look more like your mom or your dad? What are your similarities to this parent? Are you happy that you look like this parent?
